MALAYSIA-CHINA DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS

Hubungan diplomatik antara Malaysia dan China, yang bermula sejak 1974, merupakan satu contoh yang menarik tentang bagaimana dua negara dengan latar belakang yang berbeza dapat menjalin kerjasama yang saling menguntungkan. Malaysia menjadi negara ASEAN pertama yang mengiktiraf Republik Rakyat China, dan ini membuka jalan kepada pelbagai bentuk kerjasama dalam bidang perdagangan, pelaburan, pendidikan, dan budaya.

The diplomatic relationship between Malaysia and China, which began in 1974, is a good example of how two countries with different backgrounds can establish mutually beneficial cooperation. Malaysia became the first ASEAN country to recognize the People's Republic of China, paving the way for various forms of collaboration in trade, investment, education, and culture.

Pameran ini bertujuan untuk memperlihatkan perjalanan hubungan ini, bermula dari zaman Kerajaan Melayu Melaka hingga zaman kini. Dalam pameran ini, aspek-aspek sejarah terdahulu berkaitan bidang politik, ekonomi, pelancongan, pendidikan, dan sukan akan dipamerkan. Ini secara tidak langsung menggambarkan bagaimana persahabatan antara kedua negara dibina atas prinsip kesaksamaan dan saling mempercayai.

This exhibition aims to show the journey of this relationship, starting from the era of the Malacca Sultanate up to the present day. In this exhibition, historical aspects related to politics, economics, tourism, education, and sports will be emphasized. This indirectly reflects how the friendship between the two countries was built on principles of equality and mutual trust.

Melalui pameran ini, kita dapat memahami dengan lebih meluas tentang bagaimana Malaysia dan China telah membina hubungan yang bukan sahaja menguntungkan dari segi ekonomi tetapi juga menggalakkan pemahaman budaya yang lebih mendalam. Hubungan ini memperkuatkan lagi kedudukan kedua-dua negara di peringkat global, serta memberi manfaat kepada rakyat masing-masing.

Through this exhibition, we can understand of how Malaysia and China have built a relationship that not only benefits both economically but also fosters a deeper cultural understanding. This relationship further strengthens both countries' positions on the global stage and brings benefits to their respective citizens.

SEJARAH /HISTORY

Sejarah hubungan persahabatan Malaysia-China telah terjalin sejak sekian lama lagi. Menurut sumber sejarah China, hubungan negara China dan Malaysia boleh dijejaki sejak sebelum Masihi, dan kegemilangannya adalah pada zaman keagungan Kerajaan Melayu Melaka. Hubungan kedua-dua negara pada asasnya berdasarkan perdagangan dan perniagaan.

The history of Malaysia-China relationship has been established for a long time. According to Chinese historical sources, the relationship between China and Malaysia can be traced back to before the Common Era, reaching its peak during the glory days of the Malacca Sultanate. The relationship between the two countries was primarily based on trade and commerce, with diplomatic ties subsequently formed to further strengthen trade cooperation between them.

HUBUNGAN AWAL KERAJAAN KESULTANAN MELAYU MELAKA DAN KERAJAAN CHINA

EARLY RELATIONS BETWEEN THE MALACCA SULTANATE AND THE CHINESE EMPIRE

Parameswara telah menjalinkan hubungan persahabatan dengan Kerajaan China sebagai langkah keselamatan negeri Melaka. Melaka memiliki hubungan yang dekat dengan Dinasti Ming di negara China. Kerajaan Ming di bawah pemerintahan Maharaja Yung Lo telah mengiktiraf Parameswara sebagai Raja Melaka. Hubungan diplomatik antara Melaka dan China mula terjalin apabila Laksamana Yin Ching melawat Melaka pada tahun 1404 dan disusuli dengan lawatan Laksamana Cheng Ho pada tahun 1405 dan 1409.

Parameswara established a friendship relation with the Chinese Empire as a security measure for the state of Malacca. Malacca had close ties with the Ming Dynasty in China. The Ming government under Emperor Yongle recognized Parameswara as the King of Malacca. Diplomatic relations between Malacca and China began when Admiral Yin Ching visited Malacca in 1404, followed by Admiral Zheng He's visits in 1405 and 1409.

Kepesatan ekonomi Tanah Melayu telah menyebabkan berlakunya masalah kekurangan tenaga buruh tempatan. Oleh itu, pihak British telah berusaha membawa tenaga buruh dari luar bagi memenuhi keperluan tersebut. Melalui sistem tiket, bakal-bakal imigran akan dikumpulkan dari kampung ke kampung di China oleh seorang kheh thau (ketua). Setelah itu, mereka akan diserahkan untuk bekerja dengan nakhoda kapal untuk tempoh tertentu sebagai satu cara untuk membolehkan mereka belayar ke Tanah Melayu.

The rapid economic growth of Malaya led to a shortage of local labor. As a result, the British made efforts to bring in foreign labor to meet the demand. Through the ticket system, prospective immigrants were gathered from village to village in China by a kheh thau (leader). Then they would be handed over to the ship's captain for a certain period, as a way for them to be able to sail to Malaya.
