National Library to reopen on Tuesday

KUALA LUMPUR: Services at the National Library of Malaysia, including community libraries, will reopen to visitors on Tuesday. PNM deputy director-general Datin Jamaliah Mohd Nayan said the services that would reopen were the Information and Membership Registration Counter, Malaysian and Overseas Reference Centres and bulk loan services at Menara PNM and Wisma Sejarah, as well as the Children's Library Service at Anjung Bestari. Jamaliah advised visitors to adhere to the standard operating procedures and embrace the new norms, adding that the Fine-Free Programme had been extended to March 31. Bernama
