National Library to reopen Tuesday

04/03/2021 09:25 PM

KUALA LUMPUR, March 4 – Services at the National Library of Malaysia (PNM), including the Community Library, will be reopened to visitors beginning Tuesday (March 9).

PNM deputy director-general Datin Jamaliah Mohd Nayan in a statement today said that the services to reopen are the Information and Membership Registration Counter; Malaysian and Overseas Reference Centres as well as bulk loan services at Menara PNM and Wisma Sejarah, as well as the Children's Library Service at Anjung Bestari.

The operating time will be from 10 am until 5 pm, Tuesday until Saturday.

Meanwhile, the operating hours for the Bukit Damansara Community Library, Mahkota Cheras Community Library (BMC Mall), AEON Library at AU2 Setiawangsa (AEON AU2, Setiawangsa), Buku2U @ Radia Library (Radia, Bukit Jelutong) and Keramat UTC Community Library (Mini UTC, Keramat Mall) are from 10 am to 5 pm every Tuesday to Saturday.

Jamaliah also advised visitors to always adhere to the standard operating procedures (SOP) and embrace new norms, besides informing that the Fine Free Programme (no fines on overdue book returns) has been extended until March 31, 2021.
